AMENDMENTS AND CONVENTION RESOLUTIONS

SECTION 1 WHO MAY SUBMIT

Resolutions may be submitted by locals, signed by the President and Secretary; by authorized and appointed committees at a convention of the NYSPFFA signed by the duly authorized representatives; the NYSPFFA executive board, signed by the President and Secretary/Treasurer.

SECTION 2 HOW PROPOSED AND ADOPTED

- A. Resolutions intended for adoptions at convention shall be presented to the Secretary/Treasurer with one (1) original and two (2) copies stamped with the seal of the local, on or before the first day of convention. They shall be clearly typewritten and at least double spaced and require a majority vote for adoption, unless otherwise stated.
- B. Resolutions presented after the opening session shall be in accordance with the rules adopted by convention.
- C. Resolutions with a cost factor shall be received at the state office thirty (30) days prior to convention, have the cost factor affixed by the Secretary/Treasurer, and carry automatic per capita increase if adopted.
- D. Resolutions regarding amendments to the constitution and by-laws require two-third (2/3) vote of delegates present and voting and all other resolutions require a majority. These resolutions must be received by the Secretary/Treasurer no later than forty-five (45) days immediately preceding the opening of the convention in order that such amendments and resolutions may be printed and distributed to each local fifteen (15) days prior to the opening of convention.
- E. However, if an emergency situation occurs between the forty-five (45) day period immediately preceding the convention and the convention itself which manifestly is of such an emergency nature as to require late submission the resolution may be received upon two-thirds (2/3) consent of the convention delegates present and voting.

The NYSPFFA shall not submit any resolution to the IAFF convention unless adopted by delegates at a convention of the NYSPFFA.

- F. Resolutions to the Constitution & By-Laws will not be permitted in the off year unless they meet the specific deadlines in our Constitution & By-Laws, and the NYSPFFA Executive Board deems the resolution emergent in nature and warranting immediate action.

SECTION 3 AMENDMENTS BY EXECUTIVE BOARD BETWEEN CONVENTIONS

- A. The executive board of the NYSPFFA shall have authority between conventions to amend this constitution and by-laws as necessary to remove any conflict between its provisions and those of any applicable federal or state law.
- B. The executive board is also empowered to modify such provisions as necessary to conform to amendments adopted at conventions.

ARTICLE TWENTY

GENDER AND "APPROVAL"

Whenever any words are used in this constitution and by-laws of the NYSPFFA in the masculine gender, they shall be construed as though they were also in the feminine and neutral gender in all situations where they would apply.

Whenever the word "approval" appears in this constitution and by-laws or in written policies of the NYSPFFA it shall mean "prior approval" unless specifically written to the contrary.
